

New Heights In Attendance

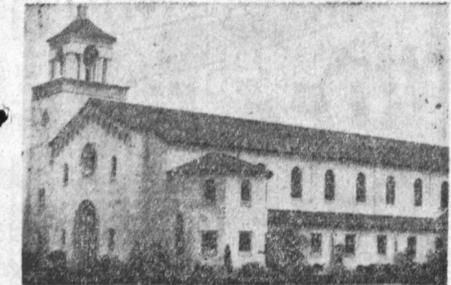

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist church has begun the 1955-56 church year by setting a new Sunday school attendance record.

During the month of October, previous attendance records were shattered, and a new average attendance record was established.

Rev. Robert A. Wells, pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist church will be the evangelist in a revival meeting at the First Southern Baptist church in Baldwin Park. He will speak at the 8:30 a.m. service Sunday, November 13, before leaving for the revival and will return to his church for the evening service, Sunday, November 20.

Church News

Rehearsals Begin for Presentation of 'Messiah'

Rehearsals are now underway for the presentation on Sunday afternoon, December 4, of Handel's noted Messiah oratorio, it was announced today by Fred Lincoln, area manager for this community.

The Messiah will be presented locally at Lutheran Church, located at 2900 West Carson st. It will start at 4 p.m., and the public is invited. There will be no charge for admission. A collection will be taken to help defray expenses.

The person conducting the rehearsals is Frank Omen, who will also direct the final version of the oratorio December 4.

The Messiah will be presented in approximately 64 different areas simultaneously throughout Southern California.

The local presentation will be one of the 64, and is expected to be one of the finest of the large group. Soloists will be those who won in recent auditions in Los Angeles, which drew hundreds to try out.

"They will be among the very finest singers available," said Lincoln.

Not only are choir members of the churches of the Torrance-Lomita area invited to participate, but all interested vocalists are invited to attend. Rehearsal Sunday, November 20 and 28 at 3 p.m. at the First Lutheran church.

First Baptist Sets Duplicate Service Plan

Duplicate morning worship services were initiated at the First Baptist church, 2118 Carson, last Sunday at 9 and 11 a.m., according to Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor.

9-9:50—Early church service.

9-9:50—Junior and primary departments, Sunday school.

10-10:50—General Sunday school.

10-10:50—Junior church in main sanctuary.

11 a.m.—Regular church service.

Pathfinders Attend Annual Adventist Fair

Pathfinders of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church participated in their annual fair scheduled at Lynwood on Sunday, October 30.

The twelve local youngsters who operated a booth at the Pathfinder Fair also took part in exhibitions of drill wall scaling and other activities. In addition, they entered a float in the parade of floats held at that time depicting the theme of the fair, "Pioneering With Pathfinders."

The local club took second place with its float which consisted of a log cabin, whose doors and windows actually worked, and which had a little girl, (Donella Moshos) sitting on the front porch rocking, and reading her Bible. She was dressed as an old fashioned woman.

The booth depicted an outdoor scene with trees, and a forest atmosphere, leaves underfoot, and a trail through the prints and cat prints in the soft earth.

Miss Kathy Roy maintained a working demonstration making plaster casts of the paw prints as the judges came around, and was assisted by Chalene Crow, Sandy Roy and Linda Magsulit.

There was a pup tent pitched in the booth with outdoor gear and camping equipment to simulate an overnight camp site. The backdrop was mountains and forest pictures drawn on the walls of the booth. Mrs. Don C. Moshos is the director of the local group, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Roy, deputy director; Verne Kibby and Michael Koehler, counselors; Ralph Magsulit, Merton Bortroff, and Mrs. Penny Thomas as assistants to teach craft classes.

The boys and girls attending the fair were Don Moshos, Donna Moshos, Dee Moshos, Kathy Roy, Joe Roy, Sandy Roy, Lar-

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Casey, of 2046 W. 237th St., announce the birth of a daughter, Christine Diane, weighing 7 pounds and 7 ounces.
